LE R A B B I N K H A L I M S K Y

Rabbi Khalimsky was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He studied at various yeshivas including Eitz Chaim, The Lakewood Collel of Toronto and Tomechai Temimim. Throughout his rabbinic career he has lectured extensively in 14 countries, on four continents, from the jungles of Guatemala to the Sea of Japan. People are riveted by his adventures and incredible stories of hashgocha protis (divine providence) in some of the most exotic and dangerous locales in the world. He served as chaplain in 300 federal and state prisons and correctional facilities throughout the U.S.A, as well as various military installations. Currently Rabbi Khalimsky resides in Israel with his wife and 3 girls and is a senior lecturer of Rabbinic studies and shechita at Yeshivat Ohr Simcha, as well as COO of CMC Holdings LLC
